The Sevier Valley Museum is trying to do a fundraising event to purchase a building to house the museum. It's not easy. Many of the buildings are falling apart. Unbelievable! I would like to do this but I'm afraid it will cost too much.

This is what I sent to the designer - so he wouldn't panic - he said your print wouldn't reproduce with any quality. - have you another? → Obviously, not at the ready.

Hope all is well with you

↳ Quite! Just crazy chaos of too many fingers in too many pots about to boil over. We finish hanging the show
