GREETINGS FROM ROCKOME GARDENS

Arcola, Ill.

Fresca Bottle House made from 2400 Fresca bottles is surrounded by pots of magnificent flowers. Always something to see and do at ROCKOME GARDENS. Located 5 miles west of Arcola, Illinois. Open early spring to late fall.

Guess what: the Rock^{UP} Garden pictured in your old "Popular Something" magazine turns out to be Amish run and owned. We spent a thorough 2 hours there this morning. At the moment we're in Gateway City St. Louis waiting for the elevator ride to the top of the Arch (a 2 hour wait). The mid-west heat and humidity has finally caught up with us and we are oozing to death slowly. Hoping to see Garden of Eden tomorrow. Adieu.
