

LOUISE:

ENCLOSED IS SOME INFORMATION CONCERNING Mr. SMITH. I DO HAVE OTHER PHOTOS, BUT I DON'T KNOW WHERE THEY ARE AT THIS TIME. THE PHOTOS PASTED ONTO THE PAPER DO NOT REMOVE. THEY ARE ACTUALLY POLAROID, AND I HAD TO REMOVE THE BACKING TO PASTE THEM ONTO THE PAPER. I NEVER ANTICIPATED USEING THEM.

I have completed the survey form as much as possible. The directions to Mr. Smith's farm are too complex to explain in the short space provided. As you have been there, I think you realize what I mean.

Should you need more info, please advise me.

Also, your phone No. is not in the book!

Dear Seymour and Elaine,

Information packet is on the way.

Sincerely,

Louise Hines

Before I came down to Linc's, I was talking to Joseph Salvatore about once a week, he told me that he was a painter, that was all I knew about him. Such a small and strange world. L.H.
