Dear Seymour,

This article was in last Sunday's paper. I congratulated Richard Nilson on the article and asked him why he didn't write about the similar sites here, in Phoenix? ^{on his} (machine) - So he answered (on my machine) that when I called, he was getting out the letter I had written to him last year, listing several sites - He said he was going to do it! yea!!!

So then I called him again, this time he answered, and I gave him a couple more places - but now as I think about it - why hold back? - I send him a few more addresses. I've found a couple more places since you were here last.

If Richard does an article, it will provide me with exactly what I need to send to 20/20. yea! yea!

So - I think it will work - one way or the other.

maybe he'll write a book. What documentation?

Seymour
