

WORKSHOPS

All workshops are at The Orange Show on Sundays from 1-4 pm

FLOWER COSTUME WORKSHOPS

Carnival '92

Sunday, September 6, 1 - 4 pm

Sunday, September 13, 1 - 4 pm

Sunday, September 20, 1 - 4 pm

Children FREE, Adults $1

Costume designer Henry Thompson leads children in creating flower costumes for the Houston Caribbean Festival Parade. The Parade will take place on Saturday, September 26, 11 am, in downtown Houston. The Caribbean Junior Carnival is on Saturday September 26 and Sunday September 27. It is FREE and it takes place at the Houston Center Superblock (opposite the George R. Brown Convention Center). Each child is encouraged to participate in the parade wearing the costume they make at The Orange Show. For information on the workshops, please call The Orange Show at 926-6368. For information on the workshops, please call the Caribbean Festival at 852-1616 or 438-9125.

ORANGE SHOW GALA WORKSHOPS

Knock on Wood

Sunday, September 27, 1 - 4 pm

Sunday, October 4, 1 - 4 pm

Sunday, October 11, 1 - 4 pm

Sunday, October 18, 1 - 4 pm

Children FREE, Adults $1

Artists from the community guide children in creating fetishes, good luck omens, woodcuts, and wood carvings based on traditional superstitions about good and bad luck. Some of these creations will be used at for this year's annual Orange Show Masquerade Gala, which has the theme "Knock on wood."

end

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30
KNOCK ON WOOD
ANNUAL ORANGE SHOW GALA

“Knock on Wood” and other superstitions are the theme of this year’s Orange Show Masquerade Gala. Broken mirrors, spilled salt, and black cats will be counteracted by rabbit’s feet, four leaf clover, lucky pennies, unicorns, amulets and fetishes created by Orange Show volunteers and artists, all of which will be used for decorations and sponsor gifts.

This year the party space has been generously underwritten by Lamesa Properties Ltd. at the fabulous art deco Shepherd Plaza Shopping Center. This unique specialty retail center is located at Shepherd and Richmond.

There will be dancing to a nationally-known band ( sorry, but we can’t reveal their name just yet), fabulous food, spine-tingling performances, and the usual Orange Show surprises. Psychics will predict your future by reading your palm, tarot cards, or peering into a crystal ball.

It promises to be the best gala yet! Cross your fingers and mark the date. Tickets start at $500 for this, The Orange Show’s major fundraiser. You may call The Orange Show at 926-6368 for further information or look for your invitation in the mail.

more

The Orange Show Foundation
2402 Munger Street
Houston, Texas 77023
(713) 926-6368

*** FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ***

SEPTEMBER - OCTOBER 1992

EVENTS AND WORKSHOPS AT THE ORANGE SHOW

CONTACT: LISA FISHER at 926-6368

EVENTS

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6 1-2 pm
STORYTELLING: A FOLK ART TRADITION
Children FREE, Adults $1

Jamal Koram 'The Story Man', a storyteller from St. Louis will be here to entertain and teach us with his unique storytelling. His program involves audience participation, motivation and self esteem building, educational issues, and a lot of love.

Storytelling is the oldest form of creating a connection with others and perpetuating cultural traditions. Storytelling forges a link between the storyteller and the audience that transcends cultural differences and geographical distances.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11
HIDDEN GALVESTON
EYEOPENERS TOUR XVII
Members $40, Non-members $45

Join us on this inaugural tour to Galveston, where we will spend the day investigating the little known treasures of Galveston's public and private spaces. We will transport you in air-conditioned comfort as you sip on orange juice, coffee, or the beverage of your choice. Lunch at an unusual spot is included in the price. Please call 926-6368 for reservations, as the bus fills up quickly.

more