Dear Merrill,

This is an apology for referring to Spaces as Stasis in my last letter to you. I just received a copy and immediately noticed my error. It reminds me of when I was first dating my husband. For weeks, until I saw his surname written, I couldn't determine whether it was Meeham or Meehan (ultimately it proved to be the latter).

Also, after looking at Spaces, I realized I may have inundated you with superflous information on Pueblo Deco, instead of confining myself to Shaffer's Hotel.

Best,

Carla
