

In Washington she discusses some interesting projects with Joan Anderson, left, and Cecelia Cadei, fifth graders at St. Mary's.

A LAST LOOK - Father Lawrence Goode, assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church for the past four years, takes a last look before leaving Gilroy this week at the shrine to our Lady of Guadalupe being built at the northwest corner of St. Mary's by Ramon Marquez. Father Goode left for Burlingame where he has been assigned to St. Catherine's Church. During his years in Gilroy, Father Goode has worked with teen-agers, been chairman of the supervisory committee of the CSO Credit Union, and a member of the year round Head Start committee.
