UNIQUE FAMILY ATTRACTION! CROSS VILLAGE, MICHIGAN

Located in Cross Village, Michigan, this historical complex is called a monument to nature. Built on a bluff overlooking Lake Michigan, Legs Inn is unique and mysterious as seen in its architecture and decor. (AAA approved)

UNMATCHED ATMOSPHERE . . .

This stone and timber landmark, was created over a period of several decades by one man, Stanley Smolak, a Polish immigrant who fell in love with Northern Michigan and its people. A unique blend of "Old World" Europe and Indian cultures create an unforgettable experience.

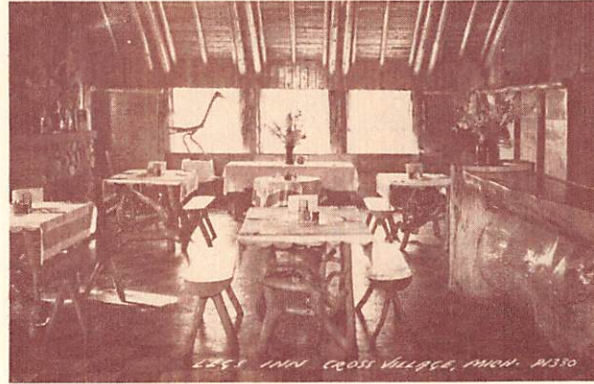

The dining rooms, bar, and other rooms are filled with an intriguing collection of nature and hand-carved furniture, whimsical creations made of tree stumps, twisted limbs and roots, natural sculptures of driftwood and huge stone fireplaces.

The uniqueness of Legs Inn has been acknowledged in numerous newspapers and magazines.

GREAT CASUAL DINING . . .

Attractive dining room offers old style hospitality and expertly prepared "homemade" lunches, dinners or "something in between." Polish cuisine is the Inn's specialty. However, American dishes and White fish (broiled or smoked) are also very popular.

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT . . .

In the lounge, live entertainment for all age groups is offered. Choose from over fifty types of beer imported from all over the world, good wine selection or your favorite cocktail at the unique bar.

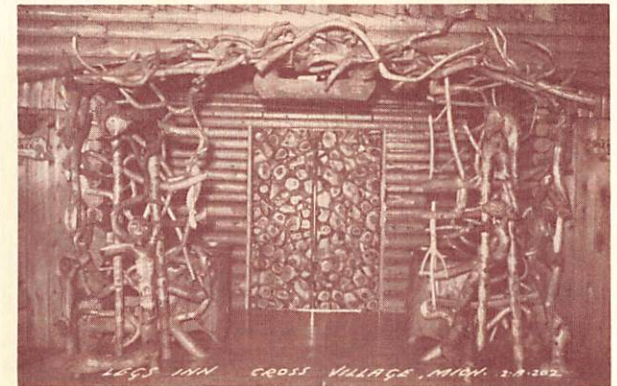

During the summer months, service is extended into an outdoor area. Enjoy magnificent views of the sun setting over Lake Michigan.

UNIQUE SOUVENIRS . . .

Our souvenir shop offers unique handcrafted gifts and souvenirs.
