

Sunday

Dear Symon

At long last, I am being a bit more "functional". And here is the copy of Gaye's column mentioning Tom and SPACES (incredibly of course) and me (incredibly, or attributing to me too much credit). But I suppose mention is better than none at all — in this case, I don't know what she wanted to accomplish. I haven't spoken to Carol lately, though this might be a good time to call and find out if anything important has transpired. Just did ~~no~~ answer.

I hope that there will be some positive change for you and spaces this year. I don't think you are doing anything "wrong" but I just think it's very difficult to get money for an organization that is national in scope without it being on the most life threatening issues list. If you can just begin to implement some of your other ideas, you will feel better all around — but you must not give up without getting paid — that is unless we win the lottery and you don't have to worry about money any more.

Oh, I forgot to get us tickets yesterday — it was up there again — like $21 million or so.

Puz, Sam