Dear Mr. Friedman,

Our national newsletter will introduce you to SPACES, a non-profit organization concerned with the preservation of, and documentation of, about, the over 200 American "folk art environments".

We're interested in getting a copy of your Volume 1, No 1 edition with its cover story on the Rolling Thunder environment in Inlay, Nevada. We're also interested in your issue a few months past featuring buildings shaped like fish, hot dogs, etc. These issues, if available, would be valuable additions to our archives.

Please let us know, too, if you regularly provide past issues to your readership. If so, we would add your publication to the bibliography which will be published in the next issue of our newsletter.

Would it be possible for us to receive regular review copies of Art Express?

Sincerely,

Seymour Rosen
Director
