Dear Mr. Beal

Here are the pictures we took of your home last fall. They are not as good as we hoped they would be, but the weather was against us. I sent an extra one with Frieda and you in it as I thought she might like one.

We didn't get to say good-bye to Frieda or find out her last name as the hostess wouldn't seat us at her table the morning we left. She had ^{her} quota of tables before we got there.

Truly yours
Margaret E. Kwan
