

Greenspace exec director made this suggestion for acquiring $ for the Art Beal Foundation: sell the existing water meter for up to $60,000. and use the money to pay back taxes, obtain liability insurance, proceed with restoration.

The natural springs on the property could be used to irrigate and supply all water needs, once developed.

Sounds like an idea worth immediate investigation.

Contact the Cambria Community Services District to inquire about legal issues, procedures, etc.