Dear Mr. Beal:

We are glad to receive another payment of $7.00 on the contract for your poem titled, MY STAR OF LOVE. That leaves a balance of $8.00 yet to be paid.

After considering all of your new poems we have decided to accept the one titled, A VOICE SO SWEET. It seems to be the best.

The other poems seem to be well written, but we want to be very careful in making our selections so that we shall complete only those we think are better than the average.

You will hear from us again just as soon as the manuscript of, MY STAR OF LOVE, is ready to mail.

Two contracts are inclosed for, A VOICE SO SWEET. We are quoting you the same price of $22.00.

Very truly yours,

J. L. Brown
