Dear Mr. Nunis:

Enclosed is some information about a Southern California artist named John Ehn, whose works have been honored by the California State Office of Historic Preservation as State Landmark #939.

Mr. Ehn died in 198<sup>7</sup> and the family is being forced to divest themselves of a large tract of land which includes the Landmark. The family would like the collection of works to be held together and available to the public.

John Ehn was a professional trapper and the theme of his works is the <sup>Old</sup> West. A theme which many felt would be of interest to the public visiting Disneyland. The family believes a relationship between them and your organization could be of mutual benefit. Simply put, they hope you would have an interest to display Mr. Ehn's work as an attraction at your park and thereby saving an Historic Landmark.

We invite you or a representative to visit the site and we would be most happy to visit you and discuss the matter.

I will call you the first of the week to see if there are any questions I may answer.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Seymour Rosen
Director
