July 22nd, 1943.

Mr. Arthur Beal,
827 Hyde Street,
San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Mr. Beal:

Thank you for your very nice letter of July 3rd. I have looked over the songs you sent, and am returning them to you herewith.

Incidentally, I certainly did receive the belt which you made for me. I wrote and thanked you for it on December 21st, 1939. That letter was sent to 365 Golden Gate Avenue, and was returned by the post office. Then we sent it out again to 20 Jones Street.

Please be assured that I deeply appreciate your interest in "Hobby Lobby", and hope you'll be listenin' in each time it is on the air.

Cordially,

Dave Elman
DAVE ELMAN.
