

Shakespeare

Tennyson

Poe

Whittier

Longfellow

The Pageant of Poetry

PACIFIC PRESS PUBLISHERS
Donald Grant, Managing Editor

816 SO. ROBERTSON BLVD.
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

May 28, 1941.

Art Beal
20 Jones St.,
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mr. Beal:

I was happy to receive your remittance of $2.00 for your second copy of the PAGEANT OF POETRY and to be able to place another of your poems in this edition. Your second poem to be included in this volume will be THERE IS A SOLUTION FOR EVERY PROBLEM.

I am pleased to note that we are going to be able to place your other two accepted poems in the PAGEANT OF POETRY and will look forward to receiving your remittance at an early date, as stated.

There will be no remuneration for the authors, from the sale of these books, unless the book happens to make an unusually big success and sells a few thousand copies in the books stores. If this happens, we plan to make a royalty distribution to our contributors. The main purpose of this edition is to place it where it will meet the eyes of the public and those who are interested in good poetry. The music publishers, the public libraries and the motion picture reference libraries will all have copies of this edition donated..at our expense of course.

I shall look forward to hearing from you soon. With my kindest regards to you and to Miss Miller, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Donald Grant
Donald Grant

DG/mb