Dear Friend Writer:

Having seen your name listed in the book, The Spirit Of America, I have decided to write and find out just what kind of luck and past experience you have had in writing poems.

In reading over your listing in the book, it states, that you are a poem writer and that you are the author of published work, "The Flag A Man Can Love".

Have you been writing anymore poems since entering into the last contest.

I hope that I have not bored you, but being an amateur poem writer like yourself, I am of the opinion that when one amateur poem writer writes to another, one may be able to learn something from one or the other, in other words I don't think any harm can become of it.

Hoping to hear from you real soon, I remain,

Musically yours

Anthony S. Spracale
