Dear Contributor:

Thank you for submitting your manuscript for "Of America We Sing!" Since it was marked for my personal attention, I'll let you know my decision right after the close of the contest.

You'll be interested to learn that more poets than ever before have contributed to this volume. Should your verse be of such exceptional merit that I'll want to include it immediately, you'll hear from me before then. Of course, you have my best wishes for success!

Cordially yours,

Paul E. Carter, Editor
