

THE HEIDELBERG PROJECT. DETROIT

The Dottie Wottie House

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said: "We are all the same color on the inside." This house represents the common unifying spirit among us, a foundation to the Heidelberg project. Also in dedication to his late partner, sidekick and grandfather Sam Mackey who loved jelly beans. photo © Donna Terek courtesy of The Detroit News

Hey - thanks for the tapes, clippings, booklet & etc. Should I try to copy The Living Museum tape as a trade? Did you know that the Heidelberg Project was recently completely levelled? That's what a student, originally from Detroit, told me. Are you still thinking of visiting New York? (It will probably happen when I get e-mail.)
