Dear Bob:

I received your Jan. 29 letter and double-checked the date. It is correct.

Since the county museum doesn't have the negatives, I would assume Joe Gust might. He was the Daily Journal photographer for years. He currently is the Koochiching County Auditor, c/o the Courthouse.

If Joe can't help you, the ex-editor, Paul Anderson, might. His address is 125 Riverview Blvd., Falls. He often leaves in the winter, however.

If those two don't come through, I don't know where to recommend next.

Sincerely,

JIM BLUBAUGH
