

May 18, 1982

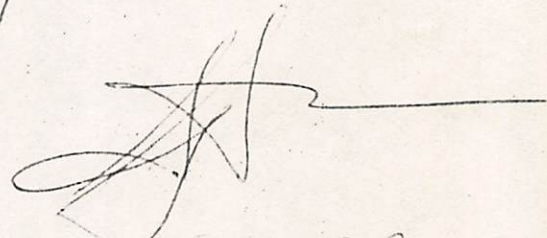

Dear Thunder

I'm sorry to hear that people are not respecting the place you built with so much love and care. I visited you in 1971 and spent an enjoyable afternoon talking with you and the other people working with you.

SPACES is limited in the things we can do - but we shall find some way to help out. I shall be driving thru L.A. on the first of next week and hope we can sit down and talk about your concerns.

Your letter gave a sense of unhappiness but nothing specific we could respond to.

I hope to find you well!

Seymour Rosen