Seymour —

I thought you'd be interested in my notes from a photo visit to Rolling Thunder Mountain this summer — into council funded. I didn't get to Sacred Canyon at all, although I know Thunder did some work there. And I was driven out by the heat so will go back in the fall to finish. I never got to talk to anyone who knew the story of his death — did you? The last I heard, the Arts Council was researching property rights/title.

Keep in touch. My best!

Susan —
