

FOLK ART SOCIETY OF AMERICA
P.O. BOX 17041
RICH MOND, VA 23226

Dear Friends of Folk Art,

Each year at this time there are many calls for contributions, and the Folk Art Society needs your help if we are to continue the expansion and development required in today's competitive world.

This year has seen the birth of the society's Web page on the Internet which lets viewers all over the world hear about contemporary folk art, new books, exhibitions and events, and, of course, about the Folk Art Society and its activities. We regularly reprint articles from the Folk Art Messenger to educate and inform the public. Check out FASA's Web site at: <http://www.folkart.org>. Our e-mail address is: fasa@folkart.org.

A newly designed promotional brochure has just been completed, and you'll receive one with the next issue of the Messenger. Let us know if you would like more copies to send to friends.

Contributions greater than the basic $25 (individual) and $35 (family) memberships will be recognized in the February issue of the Messenger, so please raise your level of contribution this year if you can. Any contribution will be greatly appreciated and acknowledged.

As you make your year-end tax plans, remember your annual contribution can be in the form of either cash or securities. Please call the Folk Art Society at 1-800-527-FOLK, if you have any questions.

Thank you for your continued support and encouragement.

With best wishes for the holidays,

Ann F. Oppenheimer

Ann F. Oppenheimer, President

P.S. Please indicate on your membership blank if your contribution is an advance renewal or a tax-deductible gift for 1996.
