Dear Seymour,

I am deeply indebted to you for sending me the Grandma Prisbrey story. I loved reading it/ shouldn't it be printed commercially? (Who, by the way, transcribed it; assuming it was from taped conversations w/T.P.)

I wish we could have you come and speak. It would be wonderful. Unless you could come on your own steam, we can't offer you anything, unfortunately, due to working with a tight budget (a grant from the Virginia Foundation For The Humanities).

Do stay in touch. And if you'd like to come to the festival, we could arrange for you to stay here in Richmond. (And perhaps throw in a Finster T-shirt and free catalogue!)

Much obliged and thank you.

Susan Hankla
