Dear Ms. Skilman:

Thank you for agreeing to participate in our upcoming exhibition BITS AND PIECES: THE DREAMBUILDERS OF CALIFORNIA at The Chevron Gallery, 555 Market Street in San Francisco. The exhibit has been extended, and will now run April 9 through May 25, 1984. The Gallery is open to visitors Monday through Friday between 9am and 4pm.

Enclosed please find 3 copies of the loan agreement form. Kindly fill in the blank spaces for insurance on the front page and other needed information on the attached inventory list. Also, please sign all 3 copies on the reverse where marked with a red "X" and return all 3 copies in the enclosed envelope. These forms will be forwarded to the corporation for its signature. Upon receipt of the fully-executed copies, one will be sent to you along with a number of exhibition brochures.

Moss Kardener of Art Programs will pick-up the loaned items at the Whitley Gallery, 111 North La Brea Avenue in Los Angeles, per your agreement with John Turner.

Once again, Linda Evans and I express our appreciation for your helping make possible this exceptional exhibition.

Sincerely yours,

Michele Bell
Program Coordinator
