Dear Mr. Rosen:

The Agency is happy to report that the exhibition "America Now: A Look at the Arts of the 70s" had most successful showings in Belgrade and Zagreb, Yugoslavia, June 13 - July 14 and September 6 - October 4, respectively. Almost 100,000 people attended the exhibition, some spending hours in the pavilion. Such profound interest was reflected in the extensive and favorable local media coverage. The enclosed excerpt from USICA World describes the event in more detail.

The 1980 schedule for the exhibition is as follows:

Budapest, Hungary	June 2 - 28
Bucharest, Romania	September 1 - 25

Thank you again for your participation which made an important contribution to the success of this exhibition and to the cultural exchange program.

Sincerely,

Ernest B. Gerran
Project Director
"America Now" Exhibition
