

You are cordially invited to the

21st annual Wisconsin Concrete Park Celebration

Highway 13 South; Phillips, WI

Saturday, August 8, 2009

12:00–4:00 p.m.

A commemoration ceremony will be held celebrating the 2008-2009 conservation of Fred Smith's MARINES RAISE OLD GLORY ON IWO JIMA monument.

1:00–1:45 p.m.

Program Schedule:

Presentation of the Color Guard
Star Spangled Banner
Welcome: Bob Kopisch
Invocation: Pastor Thomas Reiff
A Northwoods Memorial:
Doug Moquin
Preserving the Iwo Jima Monument:
Lisa Stone
Wreath Placement
Taps: John Simurdiak & Don Miller
Closing Remarks
Retiring of the Colors

MARINES RAISE OLD GLORY ON IWO JIMA
Fred Smith's Wisconsin Concrete Park

Lisa Stone • Jim Zanzi

The commemorative booklet, MARINES RAISE OLD GLORY ON IWO JIMA, by Lisa Stone and Jim Zanzi, will be available at this event.

If you are unable to attend, you may order a copy of the book for a suggested donation of $12.00, postage paid.

Please send your check to:

Friends of Fred Smith, Inc.
104 South Eyder Avenue, Room 217
Phillips, WI 54555

Orders will be shipped after August 8.

This project has been funded in part by a grant from the National Trust for Historic Preservation that was made possible by the Jeffris Family Endowed Preservation Fund for the State of Wisconsin.

Friends of Fred Smith is grateful for the ongoing support of Kohler Foundation, Inc. and the RDK Foundation.