This "Poem in Stone" was built by one man in his spare time, over a period approaching half a century. It is open to the public from 10 A.M. to ten p.m. Groups are asked to make reservations, through there is no charge. The Castle was started in 1929. Architecture is medieval Norman.

THERE IS A MOVEMENT TO HAVE THE STRUCTURE BY HARRY ANDREWS TORN DOWN - I VISITED IT A FEW DAYS AGO, WAS DULY IMPRESSED, AND TOLD THEM TO GET IN TOUCH WITH YOU. ALSO, LAST WEEK I MADE A PITCH TO GEO. HOLT, ETAL, ABOUT NORTH CAROLINAS "EXORDNMENTS", AS YOU SUGGESTED. MY SUMMER ADDRESS (TIL JULY 17): ROGER MANLEY/FACULTY THE GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL OF S.C.
