Dear Ms. Gibbs:

I'm pleased to know that you have some information about Grover Thompson's garden in your files. There are some very special small works incorporated into the garden as a whole which I hope your materials document.

My plan to photograph the environment and a number of the small sculptures will be on hold until the weather moderates. 117° is far too hot for a photo session in the sun. When I have made my second visit to the site I will complete the form you sent and return it to you.

Regarding an article for SPACES for the Fall issue, I regret that my project and travel schedule won't allow any work on an article for a while. Rudy Turk plans an exhibition about the garden sometime in the spring of '87 at the Arizona State University galleries. Perhaps we can tie those together? An article about the garden and the exhibition could be prepared for your Spring or late Winter issue.

Let me know if that schedule fits with your plans.

Sincerely,

Mirra Meyer
