Dear Seymour,

I know I told you I would send photographs, etc, etc. - but my head is in grid-lock.

There are 35 more days of school, and at this point all I want to do is look at the sky for a long time - and to not even think!

I will try to get myself to do the things - but at least you've been warned

I spent this weekend doing two jars - to charm the jacaranda tree, and the tree is not behaving very well, either! It is supposed to bloom first - and then put out its leaves. - but no - its putting out the leaves even before it has bloomed! I suppose that when it heard it had until August to bloom, it decided it needed some leaves right away!

I have two trips planned for the next couple weekends, plus an open house May 2nd, and a visitor from the city on April 27th.

yesterday I noticed that people on my blocks are fixing up their places!
Four of them have shined up
a bit - I can hardly believe it!

my kids in school are leaving home -
one is involved with boys who are Satanista. It is so exciting!
Three will graduate. Amen!

See ya'
