Dear Mr. Beal:

Your letter of March 24th has come to our attention for reply.

Unfortunately, however, we have no need at the present time for parrot imitations; and particularly for any new imitators. We have a number of people in our employ who usually take care of these animal imitations for us. And, because of the fact that you do not live in Los Angeles, we feel it would be foolish to encourage you to make the trip down merely for an audition.

We wish to thank you, however, for your interest in writing us; and should you ever become permanently located in this vicinity, we shall be glad to give you an audition.

Very truly yours,
