Dear Chamber Members,

SPACES is conducting a national survey for the National Endowment for the Arts to locate and document unusual cultural sites.

The "Deerhorn Tree" is currently listed as being in your city. Can you tell us, please:

- Yes* -- Does this site still exist?
- Yes* -- Is there an owner or organization responsible for the site?
- Yes* -- Is it open to the public?
- No* -- Is there any printed information (postcard, etc.) available?
- Who can be contacted for more information?

Thank you for providing us with this information. It will become part of our national archives on this subject. Any assistance you can give us will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

R. Sue Smith
