

SPECIAL EVENTS

THE LANGUAGE OF DANCE

Two gifted African dancers, Janet Maimane and Lindi Yeni will demonstrate how dance communicates through rhythm and movement in the sixth event in the Concert Series for Children. Sunday, May 3rd, 2:00 p.m. Children are encouraged to bring tin cans, spoons and other rhythm instruments to participate. Admission is $1 for adults, and there is no charge for children under twelve.

MAKING MUSIC PLAY

A living music video will be created as children are introduced to the basic potential of musical interpretation. Led by Luisa Amaral-Smith, actress, singer, and dancer, whose credits range from television to theatre, this is the seventh event in the Concert Series for Children, Sunday, May 17, 12:30 p.m. Please note that reservations are required and there is a special starting time, but still no charge for children under twelve. For more information and reservations, please call 552-1767.

PEE WEE'S PLAYHOUSE

The Orange Show begins its summer film series with Pee Wee's Big Adventure, a delightful 1986 film that opens with our favorite Rube Goldberg machine in recent Hollywood memory. You'll have your chance to do the Pee Wee dance to Tequila for the crowd at 8:00 p.m., and the movie follows at 9:00. Saturday, May 30 Admission is $2 for adults, and free to children and Pee Wee look-alikes.

SALSA MUSIC

Luisa Amaral-Smith, a native of Puerto Rico, has a deep appreciation for salsa and will show how it can lead to a greater understanding of the Latin culture. This event will be held Sunday, May 31, 12:30 p.m. and is the final event in the Concert Series for Children. Please note the special starting time. Reservations are required because of space limitations, but there is no charge for children under twelve.

EYEOPENERS, THE SEQUEL

The highly successful bus tour of folk art environments last fall prompted the Orange Show Folk Art Tour Committee to develop a second tour of Houston for Sunday, June 14. This bus tour will explore places that make you stop, look, and look again. Departure time is 12:15 p.m. and the tour will end by 6:00 p.m. A box lunch and refreshments are included in the cost of $20 for members and $25 for non-members. Our last tour sold out in a flash, so this time we are asking that reservations be paid by May 20, and regret that unpaid reservations cannot be held beyond that date. Call 552-1767 for more information.

SONGS OF TEXAS

The Bayou City Attic Singers will present a concert of early Texas music on Sunday, June 21 at 2:00 p.m. This vocal group, together since 1975, performs music that dates to the 1830's and ranges from sacred to secular. Three Bricks from Hadrian's Wall, the very wonderful trio known for their traditional English music and senses of humor, will be along to add some really old music. Admission is the usual $1 for adults and children free.

T-TIME

Our summer film series continues with Dr. Seuss' incredible fantasy flick, The 5,000 Fingers of Dr. T on Saturday, June 27. Theodore Geisel wrote the music and designed this surrealistic odyssey through a child's imagination. A live performance by Dr. T and the Tuxtones featuring music of the 50's and 60's will begin the program at 8:00 p.m.

EYEOPENERS TOUR

ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED

The Orange Show, a kind of visionary fantastical miniature Disneyland, is considered by artists and historians to be one of the finest examples of environmental folk art in the United States. It is the work of one man, Jeff McKissack, who for 26 years dedicated his life to the creation of this monument to the orange.
