

SPECIAL EVENTS

THE WORLD'S FATTEST WOMAN

November 2, Super Sunday, 2 p.m. This month's children's program is a hilarious romp with the Main Street Children's Theatre Group doing The Big and Little Review. Younger children will delight in the action and rhythm of the songs while older kids will understand the funny facts and trivia gleaned from the Guinness Book of World Records and other sources. All will enjoy bits like the World's Fattest Woman portrayed by five young actors!

LIGHTS, CAMERA, AKSHUN

November 8, Saturday, 8 p.m. International filmmaker Kurt Kren and performance artist Andre Stitt will appear at The Orange Show. Kren has been involved with underground film since the late 50's. Stitt, from Northern Ireland, has performed pieces he calls "Akshuns" in Europe and the United States. This, and an Austin concert, are his only Texas appearances. Shows are being made possible by the Northern Irish Arts Council and N.D. This performance is $5, and unfortunately, membership privileges do not apply for this event.

TURKEY SEASON

The Orange Show will be open Friday, November 28, 12 - 5 p.m.

GOOD GOLLY

Saturday, December 6, 8 p.m. Miss Molly & the Passions will help close The Orange Show for the winter with a night of rock and roll boogie. Admission of $8 per person includes a ticket for your first drink. Orange Show members are FREE. (Here's your chance to support The Orange Show and save money!)

Color Xerox copies of the fabulous plate collection made by Houston artists for The Orange Show Benefit will be on display.

CREATE A PLATE, PART II

Or son of create a plate... If you missed the first plate workshop (it rained) come to Super Sunday, December 7 and make yourself an original plate. Materials fee $3.00 per plate. We'll send your plate off, and with a bit of luck, (although we can't promise) it will be back for Christmas! The workshop begins at 2 p.m.

WINTER HIBERNATION

Jeff McKissack's big teddy bear in The Orange Show Museum said he's had enough and it's time to get some sleep...so we will close The Show after Sunday, December 14. We'll do a little restoration work and open bright and new on March 15. And to all a good night...

CELEBRATE THE MAGIC

The Orange Show's annual fundraiser, a Halloween bash, features a Battle of the Blues Bands with the living legends John Lee Hooker and Albert King. Tony Rao from D'Amico's is cooking up another wonderful feast, and there will also be magic, fortune telling, and a unique gift made by Houston artists. All this, and the knowledge that your contribution will help preserve the world's only Orange Show make tickets a bargain at $500 (tax deductible) per person. Well, maybe not a bargain, but we only do this once a year!

ORANGE AID

So that we can acknowledge the generous contributions raised during our successful fund drive, space this month does not permit us to reproduce the membership form. Call us at 552-1767 for more information about memberships, which start at $25, and are tax-deductible. Remember, the new tax bill makes it much more advantageous for you to give before the end of 1986! And again, our deepest thanks to all those who have given so generously so The Orange Show can live!

THE ORANGE SHOW

The Orange Show, a kind of visionary fantastical miniature Disneyland, is considered by artists and historians to be one of the finest examples of environmental folk art in the United States. It is the work of one man, Jeff McKissack, who for 26 years dedicated his life to the creation of this monument to the orange.
