

SPECIAL EVENTS

BATTLE OF THE AVANT GARDE BANDS

On July 5th, several groups of experimental musicians will present an evening of sounds at The Orange Show. Sensitive Men, Ure Thrall, Wunderglass and other guest performers will take raw sound from the voices of children in the audience, percussion, ambient noises, and various musical instruments then distort, augment and create other sounds, rhythms and textures through electronic impulse distortion modes.

Is is art? Is it music? It will be a very interesting evening. Around sunset all the groups will contribute sounds simultaneously in various areas of The Orange Show. Children in the audience will be invited to participate during Ure Thrall's set.

DINO DAY SUPER SUNDAY, JULY 6

We love dinosaurs — visitors to The Orange Show are familiar with Jeff McKissack's model of dinosaurs coming out of the sea. Perhaps you've noticed the giant stegosaurus on Montrose Boulevard where Highway 59 crosses overhead. Its creator, Paul Kittleson, will be on hand at 2 p.m. to answer children's questions on "How to Stuff a Stegosaurus" and other dinosaur related matters.

SUNDAYS AT SUNSET JULY 6

The Orange Show is at its best on summer evenings with the whirligigs turning, the flags flying and the colors of sunset. The Orange Show will stay open until 8 p.m. the first Sunday of each summer month to allow patrons a chance to visit after the heat of the day is done, and the gulf breezes take over. Summer Sunday Sunsets at The Orange Show continue with the music of Mary Jane Tellez. Refreshments are available.

FOLK MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Houston Folklore Society will present a spectrum of nine folk musicians in a concert for a summer's evening. The concert begins at 5 p.m. on Sunday, July 13. Performers include Kathy Biehl, Mary Jane Tellez, Michael Hodges, David Jones, Kimberley M'Carver, David Peters, The Acme Three Piece Band, Don Sanders and Hadrian's Wall. The rain date for this program is July 20. An admission fee of $4.00 will be charged. Children are free.

WATERSHOW SUPER SUNDAY, AUGUST 3

The Orange Show's Super Sunday for children will be a celebration of water for this summer afternoon. It's not WaterWorld, but a chance to blast your buddies with a water hose or squirt gun, play with toy boats and ducks and jump through a "Willie Water Wiggle" fish for prizes and keep cool. Bring a bathing suit and towel.

SUMMER SUNSET AUGUST 3

This month's Summer Sunday Sunset will be a program of acoustic Blue Grass music from 6 till 8 p.m. Visitors are invited to visit The Orange Show during the twilight as the day begins to cool.

FUN— AND FUND—RAISING

Plans are already underway for this year's fundraising effort. One fun and exciting part of that effort will be a raffle with prizes ranging from art work to work outs. Tickets will sell for $10 each or 3 for $25 (including membership to The Orange Show). Our goal for the raffle is $10,000, which will be used to help preserve and operate The Orange Show.

If you'd like to participate either by buying or selling tickets, please call Donna Lewis at 552-1767. Volunteers who sell $1000 worth of tickets receive a ticket for themselves and a guest to this year's Orange Show Benefit, to be held this Halloween at the Transco Tower.

THE ORANGE SHOW

The Orange Show, a kind of visionary fantastical miniature Disneyland, is considered by artists and historians to be one of the finest examples of environmental folk art in the United States. It is the work of one man, Jeff McKissack, who for 26 years dedicated his life to the creation of this monument to the orange.

Constructed of concrete block masonry, with balconies, galleries, and an outdoor amphitheatre, it contains handmade metal sculpture, gates and wagon wheel railings as well as a whimsical maze, models, and narrative exhibits all extolling the virtues of the creator's favorite fruit.

McKissack worked alone, with his own hands, conceiving and constructing his private utopia, spelling out his philosophy of hard work and creating what he called a "health show." He believed that the orange was the perfect food and that it gave the body perfect energy.

KIDS WANTED

Are there any budding Jeff McKissacks out there? If your child carries crayons and paint brushes to bed with him, bring him to The Orange Show. We want to exhibit children's paintings of The Orange Show at this year's benefit gala. Please call Sharon at 552-1767 for more details.

JULY 4

In addition to our regular weekend schedule, The Orange Show will be open to the public Friday, July 4 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. in honor of Independence Day.

Dear Ladies,
Thank you for showing us around The Orange Show.
I really enjoyed it. I liked everything but I liked the orange juice best!
