Dear Mrs. Bigelow:

Congratulations on the National Register listing of the Kaleva Bottle House. You and the other members of the Historical Society must have been thrilled when you heard the good news.

Since we last wrote you the Historical Society and Museum must have witnessed many changes. We are currently updating our files on the Kaleva Bottle House and would greatly appreciate any assistance you could give us. We now have in our files letters and pamphlets you kindly sent us last year, including letters to donors, a reprint of the Rainbows in the Sky extract, a guide to the museum, a brochure on the State Historical Register dedication, a restoration progress report (dated 1981), and a black and white postcard, as well as the National Register form. Is there any additional printed material, such as newspaper articles (xerox would be fine), that you think would help us? Are there any recent photos of the museum, and the recent museum addition? Our next newsletter will highlight Michigan, and we will write a short piece on the Bottle House, so we need a good, recent photo of the House. Finally, to complete our survey form, we would appreciate knowing the current times and days the museum is open, as well as the admission charge, if any. We would very much like to hear about the Society's and Museum's progress.

If we can be of any help to you, please let us know. Thank you for your assistance. Happy Holidays!

Sincerely,

Cynthia Pansing
Researcher
