ROOM 200 "OAK LEAVES"

Basically Early American, this room is furnished with a king-sized bed and a double bed.

An Oak Leaf motif prevails. . . the leaded glass door insert is done in oak leaves, and depicts the native oak butterfly that lives only where there are oak trees. The large chunk glass hanging lamp made especially for this room weighs in excess of 100 pounds.

Bathroom basins have a hand-painted oak leaf design. . . mirrors are framed in an oak leaf design. Shower door follows through with theme of the room.
