

SEE THE TREES OF MYSTERY HERE

Four miles to the Klamath River, wonderful fishing and all-around vacation. Explore the Klamath River in one of the exciting jet boats.

In fact, for the vacation of your life, come to "Delightful Del Norte" for our many fine accommodations, restaurants, fishing rivers, and magnificent scenery.

Write for information to:

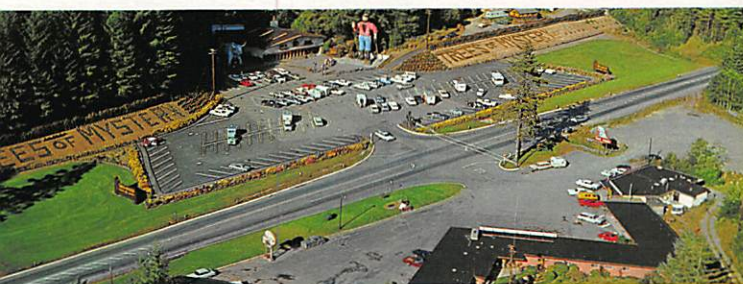

Klamath Chamber of Commerce
Klamath, California

Del Norte Chamber of Commerce
Crescent City, California

Crescent City, California

Paul Bunyan suggests . . .

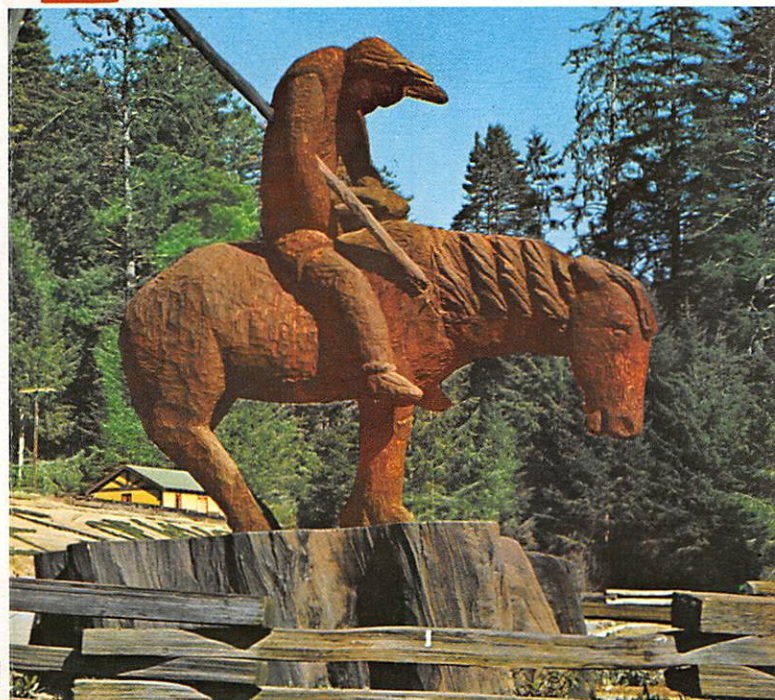

Eat and Sleep Across the Street.

Modern—Motel Trees, Blue Ox Coffee Shop, and the "End of the Trail" Bar.

TREES OF MYSTERY

KLAMATH, CALIFORNIA

Shrine of the Redwood Highway

16 miles south of Crescent City
4 miles north of Klamath
Cool, Scenic coast highway U. S. 101

Paul Bunyan, our 49' host, nods, waves, and winks as he and Babe, The Blue Ox, greet the many visitors to the Trees of Mystery.

The hollow log is the entrance to the Trees of Mystery and the new Trail of Tall Tales.

TREES OF MYSTERY

You will be amazed at the greatest number of unusual, living, and inspiring trees ever to be found — all natural wonders of the world's oldest living things.

A "Must See" in unreal reality — The Family Tree, Fallen Giant, Nature's Underpass, Lightning Tree, The Cathedral Tree, and many others. You've seen these famous trees featured in TV, Ripley's Believe-It-Or-Not, and many books about the redwoods.

Found in this unique gift shop are handcrafted gifts of redwood, the most beautiful wood in the world, found only here in California, as well as gifts from all nations. See our free Indian Museum — an authentic and unique collection of artifacts from our earliest inhabitants.

The World-Famous Cathedral Tree where traditional Easter services are held, and many weddings are performed each year.

See and hear the new "Trail of Tall Tales" stories of Paul Bunyan and his cronies hand carved in gigantic redwood with a chainsaw by the sculpturer Kenyon Kaiser.

