Dear Ms Turzin,

SPACES is a non-profit organization involved in the pre-servation and documentation of "folk art environments"--unique, large-scale, hand-built monuments such as the Watts Towers in Los Angeles and Grandma's Bottle Village in Simi Valley.

It's possible that KCRA may have filmed at the Santa Rosa home of John Medica in the last five years. His hand-built castle and intricate ~~year~~ work would have been highly memorable for any crew member involved in the shoot.

Could you tell us if such filming has taken place, and, if so, when? If you are still in possession of such a clip, could we be provided with a duly-credited copy for our archives?

In your job you may encounter such places from time to time. If you have done so, or when it may happen, please do let us know so that we may document any sites we may be unaware of at this time.

Thank you for your attention to this request.

Sincerely,

R. Sue Smith
Administrative Assistant
