

SAVING + PRESERVING ARTS + CULTURAL ENVIRONMENTS

RELEASE FOR PHOTOGRAPHIC AND DOCUMENTARY MATERIALS

Thank you for your interest in providing photographic and/or documentary material to SPACES Archives! Kohler Foundation, Inc., a Wisconsin non-profit corporation, d/b/a SPACES Archives ("SPACES"), will utilize these materials for educational, programming, and promotional purposes related to its mission of identifying, documenting, and advocating for the preservation of art environments.

Terms of release

I, the undersigned, submit the photographs and/or other documentary material identified on Exhibit A ("Materials") for the benefit of SPACES with the understanding that:

- None of the Materials will be used for commercial purposes, but, rather, will be used to further SPACES' educational and cultural mission to identify, document, collect information about, and advocate for the preservation of art environments and other self-taught artistic endeavors.
- Credit for the photographer will always accompany any display or viewing of the Materials on the SPACES website or for any other display, reference, research, or other non-commercial purposes, including for publicity, fundraising, educational, or any other organizational purpose SPACES may have. I understand that Materials displayed on the website are vulnerable to cyber theft and that SPACES is in no way at fault or liable in such instances. The Materials are not hereby released into the public domain.
- Permission of the photographer or the administrator of the photographer's archives or their heirs and assignees must be obtained prior to any proposed commercial use of the Materials.
- Copyrights to the Materials remain the photographer's and/or the photographer's archives or their heirs' and assignees' sole property, although SPACES is granted the permanent use of all copyrighted Materials submitted to SPACES by the photographer.
- SPACES shall have the perpetual right to sublicense the Materials for cultural, educational, and other non-commercial uses that are aligned with the SPACES mission, as determined in good faith by SPACES.
- I also agree and consent to Kohler Foundation Inc. having the right to transfer and assign the Materials to any other charitable organization that may in the future operate and maintain SPACES and/or promote the mission of SPACES, under the same conditions as noted above.
